

Dear Heavenly Father,

Thank you for what you have done through the past 8 years I've had. Thank you for keeping me, my family and friends safe from the day we were born. Please give me the possibility to be nice to others and forgive my sister for what she does to me.

During this year of 2010 I would like to be better in my studies then ever before. Help me not to make fun of others, also help me to be nice to others and most of all spend more time with you -my shepherd. Amen.

Amanda.
